Volume 10 - Unit 29 – Session 2
Trusting in the Gospel of Jesus

In your opinion, was justice served?

A New York City teenager, accused of shooting and killing a man last year, was released from jail by a judge on Tuesday. Bronx Supreme Court Justice Naita Semaj-Williams dismissed the indictment against Steven Mendez, 17, who allegedly shot Saikou Koma, 21, in the head in a gang-related incident. Mendez thought Koma was another man. The judge didn't give a reason for the decision. Mendez had been previously released on five years' probation last May after pleading guilty to a 2020 armed robbery in which prosecutors sought the maximum sentence of four years in prison.
