Point 2: Obeying Jesus comes from knowing Him. 1 John 2:3-4

Point 3: Obeying Jesus comes from loving Him. 1 John 2:5-6

What's the Point?

Point 1: Obeying Jesus comes from remembering His completed work. 1 John 2:1-2

Points 2&3: Obeying Jesus comes from knowing and loving Him. 1 John 2:3-6

A Wee Bit of Background

John, the Disciple, was the author of the Gospel of John, 1st, 2nd, and 3rd John and Revelation.

1 John was written primarily to reinforce basic doctrinal beliefs and to encourage believers to stand on the truth of the Gospel.

Point 1:

Obeying Jesus comes from remembering
His completed work.
1 John 2:1-2

Romans 7:24 – 8:6

Acts 4:20

2 Corinthians 5:14-21

1 John 4:19

Point 1: Obeying Jesus comes from remembering His completed work. 1 John 2:1-2

Christ as Propitiation: Because of God's righteousness and _____, humanity's sins must be atoned for in order for people to be _____ to God. As the propitiation for sins, Christ's _____ is the appeasement or satisfaction of God's wrath against sin.

Point 1: Obeying Jesus comes from remembering His completed work. 1 John 2:1-2

Christ as Propitiation: Because of God's righteousness and holiness, humanity's sins must be atoned for in order for people to be reconciled to God. As the propitiation for sins, Christ's death is the appeasement or satisfaction of God's wrath against sin.

Points 2 & 3:

Obeying Jesus comes from knowing and loving Him.

1 John 2:3-6

Points 2&3: Obeying Jesus comes from knowing and loving Him.
1 John 2:3-6

John 8:31-32

John 14:15; 21; 23-24

How Should We Then Live?

Because Christ loved us he was obedient to the Father's will - even unto death.

Because we love Him we obey His commandments – dying to self and rising to walk with Him.
